

FREE ONLINE PROGRAM!

Ohio's Seven Standards for Teaching Residency

The Ohio Standards for the Teaching Profession are the driving force for Ohio's new Teacher Residency Program. Beginning January 7, 2011, the Southeast Ohio Teacher Development Collaboration (SEOTDC) is offering free online professional development modules that center on these seven standards. These self-paced modules will encompass video excerpts of best practices, as well as participants communicating via "blackboard" and interacting with the standards.

To Register, Please Visit:

www.coras.org/pd2011.html

*Registration Closes December 19, 2010

QUESTIONS? MORE INFO?

Contact: Dr. Barbara Trube
Assistant Dean for Academic Engagement and Outreach
(740) 593-0253
trube@ohio.edu

CEU and workshop credits (for a fee) are available through any one of five SEOTDC institutions of higher education.

This online professional development series is supported by the Southeast Ohio Teacher Development Collaborative - SEOTDC - partners (the Colleges of Education of Marietta College, Muskingum University, Ohio University, The University of Rio Grande and Shawnee State University) and by the Coalition of Rural and Appalachian Schools - CORAS and a grant from the Martha Holdings Jennings Foundation.

